Join Shir Tikvah's three Rabbis for the evening which will include:

- Discussion of how our work (within Shir Tikvah committees) intersects so we're moving in the same direction
- The Jewish foundation of this work
- How our various work intersects with the Poor People's Campaign this Spring/Summer

Please RSVP at: shirtikvah.onefireplace.org/event-2842264 by March 12 so we can plan accordingly.

LECHU NERANENA - COME, LET US SING! THURSDAY, MARCH 15 FROM 6:30PM-8:30PM PSALM 97

Join Rabbi Arielle Rosenberg for a monthly exploration of the language and music of our kabbalat shabbat (Friday night) service. On the third Thursday of each month, we will spend time learning a single psalm/poem, digging into its language and mystical resonance, and opening our hearts in song in multiple musical arrangements of the language.

Lechu Neranena is a new series at Shir Tikvah, open to all! Whether you're wanting to get more oriented to the basic structure of the Shir Tikvah service or you're seeking to deepen your relationship to the poetry and meaning of our prayers, you will find something in this space! Bring instruments if you feel so inclined! In our March session, we will focus on Psalm 97.
